MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH

TEXT MESSAGE HEARING REMINDER SIGNUP

The court can text you a reminder notification three (3) days before your hearing. If you want to receive text notifications from the court to remind you of upcoming hearings, complete the fields below and file it with the court.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Text notifications are currently available only for parties in criminal cases, and only where eFiling is available. Visit www.courts.maine.gov/ecourts/index/html for more information.
- A text reminder does not replace a paper notice as the official notice of the hearing from the court. The court will send notice of all court dates in the mail even if you sign up to receive text message reminders. If you are unrepresented, the notice will be sent to you. If you have an attorney, the notice will be sent to your attorney.
- If you have multiple court cases and would like to receive text notifications for each, you can include all docket numbers on this form or complete and file a separate form in each case.
- If you have a question about your hearing being canceled or changed, call the clerk's office. Phone numbers for the court can be found at www.courts.maine.gov.
- You can opt-out of future notifications at any time by texting "NO" in response to a text notification from the Maine Judicial Branch.
