IMPORTANT WARNING TO RESPONDING PARTY

If this motion asks the Court to modify (change) a child support order and you object to the motion, you must file a written response with the Court within 30 days after the date the motion was served on you. You must also file with the Court a completed child support affidavit. This form is available at the Clerk's office or online at www.courts.maine.gov. You must send copies of your response and affidavit to all the other parties and their attorneys, if any.

If this motion does not involve child support, you must file a written objection to the motion with the Court within 21 days after it was served on you. You must also send a copy of your objection to the other parties or their attorneys, if any.

NOTICE TO BOTH PARTIES

If this motion involves minor children, you are required to attend a case management conference at the court. Within two weeks after the moving party files with the Court proof of service of the motion to modify and child support affidavit, the Court will notify you of the date and time of the conference. The notice will be sent by regular mail.

You have the right to appear and be heard at all court events (trial, hearing, conference, mediation, etc.). If you fail to appear at any or all court events without good cause, action may be taken in your case even though you are not there. This means that the Court may, in your absence, enter an interim (temporary) order, or hold a final hearing and enter a final order or judgment regarding any or all of the issues in your case, including but not limited to, paternity or parentage, parental rights and responsibilities for children (decision-making, residence, contact, etc.), child support, spousal support (alimony), and attorney fees. The Court also has the option to dismiss any pleading that you have filed if you do not appear in Court. It is your own responsibility to be sure that the Court has your correct mailing address. Any change of address must be in writing and delivered to the Clerk's office by hand or regular mail.
