IMPORTANT WARNING TO RESPONDING PARTY

If you oppose this motion, you may file with the court a response with any supporting affidavits or other documents no later than 21 days after you have been served with this motion. In addition, you must also send a copy of all filings to all other parties or their attorneys, if any.

NOTICE TO BOTH PARTIES

If this motion involves minor children, you are required to attend a case management conference at the court. Within two weeks after the moving party files with the Court proof of service of the motion to modify and child support affidavit, the Court will notify you of the date and time of the conference. The notice will be sent by regular mail.

You have the right to appear and be heard at all court events (trial, hearing, conference, mediation, etc.). If you fail to appear at any or all court events without good cause, action may be taken in your case even though you are not there. This means that the Court may, in your absence, enter an interim (temporary) order, or hold a final hearing and enter a final order or judgment regarding any or all of the issues in your case, including but not limited to, paternity or parentage, parental rights and responsibilities for children (decision-making, residence, contact, etc.), child support, spousal support (alimony), attorney fees, and distribution of marital and non-marital property (debt, real estate, vehicles, personal property, pension and retirement accounts, etc.). The Court also has the option to dismiss any pleading that you have filed if you do not appear in Court. It is your own responsibility to be sure that the Court has your correct mailing address. Any change of address must be in writing and delivered to the Clerk's office by hand or regular mail.
