I understand that, to appeal a Magistrate’s final order, I must file an objection in the District Court within 21 days from the entry of the Order. If I do not file an objection within 21 days, I will have waived my right to object to the Order and waived my right to appeal the Order in accordance with the Maine Rules of Appellate Procedure. I understand that a copy of this objection must be sent to the other party, or to their attorney if represented.

I understand the Magistrate’s Order is effective when signed and remains in effect, despite this objection, until adopted, modified, or rejected by a Judge.
