DIVORCE WITH MINOR CHILDREN CASES: What to do with these Court Forms

Here are a few tips for filling out the forms:

- Always use full legal names, not nicknames.
- Type or print neatly.
  - Fillable versions of the forms are available on our website at: http://courts.maine.gov/fees\_forms/forms.
- You will file each form with the Court. Before you do that, make copies of your completed forms—one for yourself and one copy for each of the other parties. You will need to find a place to make copies (like a library). The court clerk cannot make copies for you.

STEP ONE: Fill out the Forms

Family Matter Summary Sheet (FM-002)

This form is required for the clerk to start an action. In order to fill out this form you need to enter contact information for yourself and for the defendant.

Complaint for Divorce (FM-004)

The section at the top of the form is called the "caption." Fill in the location of the District Court (for example: "Bangor"). The clerk will fill in the docket number later. You are the plaintiff and your spouse is the defendant. Write your full legal name in the blank before "Plaintiff." Write your spouse's full name in the blank before "Defendant." If you or your spouse owns a house or other real estate or land, check the box next to "Title to Real Estate Involved." You should check this box even if title to the real estate is only in one party's name. Fill in the other blanks on the form. Near the end, where it says, "Plaintiff requests," check all the boxes that apply. (If you are not sure, check the box; you can drop that request later.) You must sign this form in front of a notary public. You can find a notary at a bank, a legal services office, through your own town office, or at the court clerk's office. Please note: parties must use the same form whether or not the divorce involves minor children.

Family Matter Summons and Preliminary Injunction (FM-038)

You must use the original form you got from the clerk. It has the clerk's original signature and seal. You cannot use a photocopy or on-line version of this form.

Fill out the "caption" as you did on the complaint. Fill in the name and address of the court. Date and sign the form. Leave the spaces on the third page empty.

Social Security Number Disclosure Form (CV-CR-FM-PC-200)

You are required by both state and federal law to provide your social security number along with your children's social security numbers. This information is collected on the Social Security Number Disclosure form, which will be confidential in the court file. This form is included in your packet.

Child Support Affidavit (FM-050)

Fill out the "caption" the same way that you did on the complaint form. Fill out the rest of the form to the best of your knowledge. Note that you list last year's earned income and this year's expected earned income separately under #1. Also note that you list other income under #2 and fringe benefits under #3. You may have to look at your records to get financial information. You must sign this form in front of a notary public. After the defendant gets your complaint, the Court will ask the defendant to fill out the same financial form and send you a copy.

Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255)

This packet contains two copies of this form. You have the choice to allow the opposing party to serve documents on you by email. To do this, you must complete one of the copies of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255) and include that in the packet of forms that you serve on the opposing party. Make sure to also include the second blank copy of this form in the packet of forms that you serve on the opposing party. If the opposing party wants to allow you to serve documents by email, the opposing party must complete the form and send it back to you. Do not file this form with the court.

PLEASE NOTE: Receiving filings by email in your case is completely optional. If you wish to receive paper filings in your case, you do not have to complete this form. However, if you do complete the form, you do not need to file it with the court.

STEP TWO: Serve the Forms

Now you must give copies to the defendant. This is called "serving" the court papers. Court rules say you can do this in one of three ways: (1) You can mail the papers, asking the defendant to agree to "service;" (2) you can send the papers by certified mail, restricted delivery; or (3) you can pay a sheriff to give the copies to the defendant. You must file proof of service with the court.

Service by Mail

Mail or hand-deliver these papers to the defendant:

- Copy of Complaint
- Copy of Summons and Preliminary Injunction
- Copy of Child Support Affidavit
- Two copies of Acknowledgment of Receipt of Summons and Complaint (after you have filled in the "caption" on both copies)
- Blank copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255)
- Completed copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255) (only if you want to agree to email receipt of documents filed by the opposing party in your case)
- Stamped, self-addressed envelope

The Acknowledgment of Receipt form asks the other party to sign it, showing that the other party got the papers, and to return the form to you within 20 days. If you get the signed Acknowledgment back within 20 days, go on to Step 3. If not, then you will need to serve the papers another way.

Service by Certified Mail, Restricted Delivery

Take these papers to the post office along with an envelope:

- Copy of Complaint
- Copy of Summons and Preliminary Injunction
- Copy of Child Support Affidavit
- Blank copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255)
- Completed copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255) (only if you want to agree to email receipt of documents filed by the opposing party in your case)

ADA Notice: The Maine Judicial Branch complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation contact the Court Access Coordinator, accessibility@courts.maine.gov, or a court clerk.

Language Services: For language assistance and interpreters, contact a court clerk or interpreters@courts.maine.gov.

MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH

Tell the postal clerk that you want to send the papers by certified mail. Make sure you ask for a "Return Receipt" and "Restricted Delivery." This costs more and involves a few extra steps. Get forms and help from your post office. File with the court clerk the green card you get back from the post office, to prove that the other party got the papers.

Service by Sheriff

Mail or take to your county sheriff's office:

- Copy of Complaint
- The original Summons and Preliminary Injunction, plus one copy
- Copy of Child Support Affidavit
- Blank copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255)
- Completed copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255) (only if you want to agree to email receipt of documents filed by the opposing party in your case)

In a letter, or in person, ask the sheriff's office to serve the papers on the other party (the defendant). Give the defendant's home address. If you think the defendant will be hard to find at home, give the defendant's work address. The deputy who "serves" the papers will complete page two of the Summons and return the original to you. There is a charge for this service - please contact the sheriff's office for the county where the defendant lives to get information on costs of service.

STEP THREE: File the Forms

Within 20 days after serving the other party, file these forms with the court:

- Summary Sheet
- Complaint
- SSN Disclosure Form
- Child Support Affidavit
- Summons (REQUIRED regardless of how service was completed, and should be filed with deputy's signature if you used sheriff's service)
- Acknowledgment of Receipt (if you used service by mail)
- Green card you got back from the post office (if you used certified mail for service)

PLEASE NOTE: you must file at least one type of proof of service for each party to the case.

The Court charges a fee to file your papers. Later you may be charged a mediation fee (shared by the parties). If you cannot afford the court fees, you may ask the clerk for an Application to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and an Affidavit. Then file the forms with the clerk along with your other papers. A judge will review your financial information and decide whether you qualify for a "fee waiver." If the waiver is denied, you must pay the filing fee within 7 days. If the waiver is granted, you will not have to pay some or all of the court fees.

WHAT IS NEXT?

Once the court receives a complete filing, the clerk will schedule the first court event with a family law magistrate (for cases with children) or judge (for cases without children). For more information on this and the rest of the court process, please visit the Family and Children page at the Maine Judicial Branch website listed below or read "A Guide to Family Separation in Maine" that is provided to every party at the start of a case.

ADA Notice: The Maine Judicial Branch complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation contact the Court Access Coordinator, accessibility@courts.maine.gov, or a court clerk.

Language Services: For language assistance and interpreters, contact a court clerk or interpreters@courts.maine.gov.

MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH

Forms required after initial filing:

Whenever you file with the court any of these forms, or any other document, you must send a copy to the opposing party.

Financial Statement (FM-043)

You must file a Financial Statement if you and the defendant disagree about how to divide your property, about spousal support (alimony), or about attorney's fees. This form is available on the Judicial Branch's website at: http://courts.maine.gov/fees\_forms/forms/index.shtml or from any District Court Clerk's office. After filling it out, file it with the clerk and send a copy to the defendant. The defendant must also file one of these forms and give you a copy. There will be a court order setting the deadline for the filing of this form.

Certificate in Lieu of Financial Statement (FM-042)

If there is no dispute about personal property, real estate, spousal support or attorney's fees, you should file the Certificate in Lieu of Financial Statement. This form is available online at: http://courts.maine.gov/fees\_forms/forms/index.shtml or from any District Court Clerk's office. After filling it out, file it with the clerk and send a copy the defendant.

Certificate Regarding Real Estate (FM-056)

In every divorce action in which a party has an interest in real estate, each party must file with the Court a Certificate Regarding Real Estate (FM-056), at least 7 days before the final hearing, containing the following information: the street address of the property, the date of the Deed and which parties' name are on the Deed, the book and page number of the applicable Registry of Deeds where the Deed is recorded, the date of the parties' marriage, and whether the property was acquired by gift or inheritance.

Federal Affidavit (FM-052)

If the defendant has not entered an appearance or appeared in court for the divorce proceedings at the time of the final hearing, the plaintiff must file a Federal Affidavit (FM-052) stating under oath that the defendant is not serving in the military or an affidavit signed by defendant waiving rights conferred by the Service Members Civil Relief Act.

Child Support Worksheet (FM-040) and, if applicable, Supplemental Worksheet (FM-040-A)

Parties must complete a Child Support Worksheet (FM-040) and file it with the Court no later than 3 days prior to a court hearing, whether contested or uncontested. It is recommended that a party file a Child Support Worksheet with their Child Support Affidavit at the time of filing. There are instructions on the worksheet for how to complete it. Parties who share substantially equal care of the minor child(ren) as defined in 19-A M.R.S. § 2006(5)(D-1) must also complete and file a Supplemental Worksheet (FM-040-A) at the same time they file a Child Support Worksheet.

CALCULATING "AMOUNT FROM TABLE" FOR LINE 9 OF THE WORKSHEET

1. Look at the Child Support Table.
2. Circle the amount in the Table under "Parents' Combined Annual Income" that is closest to the "Combined Adjusted Gross Income" on Line 7c of the Worksheet.
3. In the "Number of Children" column, circle the TOTAL number of children in this case.
Draw a line from the circled number of children down the column until it meets the circle you drew for parents' yearly combined income. Circle the number and write the number you circled in the space after "amount from table" on Line 9b of the Worksheet.
4. For example, if you have two children and a combined adjusted gross income of $18,000, use the column for 2 children. The "Parents' Combined Annual Income" and the "Number of Children" lines should meet at $54.
Using this example, you would write the following on the Worksheet:
9. Total number of children   2   multiplied by amount from table $   54   = $   108  .

NON-PRIMARY CARE PROVIDERS WITH VERY LOW INCOMES

When the non-primary care provider's income is very low, different rules for calculating child support apply. If the annual gross income of the non-primary care provider is less than the federal poverty guidelines, the non-primary care provider's weekly parental support obligation may not exceed 10% of the non-primary care provider's weekly gross income, regardless of the amount of the parties' combined annual gross income. No additional amounts such as health insurance, child care, or extraordinary medical expenses should be added to this total. Please note this amount is calculated assuming a household of one person.

If the non-primary care provider's annual gross income, without adjustments, is in the self-support reserve for the total number of children for whom support is being determined, the amount listed in the self-support reserve multiplied by the number of children is the non-primary care provider's basic support obligation for the children, regardless of the parties' combined annual gross income. The non-primary care provider's proportional share of childcare, health insurance premiums, and extraordinary medical expenses is added to this basic support obligation. This paragraph does not apply if its application would result in a greater support obligation than a support obligation determined without application of this paragraph.

If the non-primary care provider's income falls in the self-support reserve (the shaded area of the Child Support Table), check the box in the non-primary care provider column next to "self-support reserve" on the child support worksheet. If the non-primary care provider's income is lower than all income amounts listed in the Child Support Table, check the box next to "below poverty level" on the child support worksheet.

CALCULATING AMOUNT FOR LINE 6 OF THE WORKSHEET (OTHER CHILDREN LIVING WITH NON-PRIMARY CARE PROVIDER)

If the non-primary care provider has a legal obligation to support other children living in his/her home, the non-primary care provider is entitled to an adjustment. The amount of the adjustment is written on line 6. To determine the adjustment to be entered on Line 6, follow the steps in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, and 4, with some changes. In step 2, circle the amount in the Table under "Parents' Combined Adjusted Gross Income" that is closest to the non-primary care provider's gross income at Line 5. Do not circle the combined adjusted gross income of both parties in this case. In step 3, in the "Number of Children" column, circle the total number of other children living with the non-primary care provider that the non-primary care provider has a legal obligation to support. Do not circle the total number of children in this case.

Warning: If there is an existing child support order for the children in this case, the adjustment may not apply.

CALCULATING THE NON-PRIMARY CARE PROVIDER ADJUSTMENT FOR SECTION 14b OF THE WORKSHEET

If the non-primary care provider pays directly out of pocket the cost of the child(ren)'s health insurance, child care for children under the age of 12 (or otherwise eligible), and/or extraordinary medical expenses, that parent's weekly support obligation must be adjusted. The amount of the adjustment is the cost of the health insurance for the children (line 10), the cost of child care for the child(ren) under the age of 12 (or otherwise eligible) (line 11), and the cost of extraordinary medical expenses for the child(ren) (line 12). Subtract lines 10, 11, and 12 from the Non-Primary Care Provider's support obligation to determine the amount that must be paid as support.

If the primary care provider pays the cost of the children's health insurance, child care for children under the age of 12 (or otherwise eligible), or extraordinary medical expenses, or if neither parent pays for health insurance, child care for children under the age of 12 (or otherwise eligible), or extraordinary medical expenses, enter 0 on the line next to "Non-Primary Care Provider Adjustment."

MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

Your family case has been scheduled for a case management conference. Trial counsel and parties are required to attend unless:

- A Certificate in Lieu of Conference (form FM-054) is filed with the court in advance of the conference date and the court waives the conference. This form, which can be found on the Judicial Branch's website at: http://www.courts.maine.gov/fees\_forms/forms or from any Maine District Court clerk's office may only be filed when the parties agree on interim arrangements for the children;
- The Case Management Conference is deferred in accordance with M.R. Civ. P. 110A(b)(3)(A)(ii); or
- The parties agree on a modification of an existing judgment or order and file the appropriate paperwork with the court in advance of the conference date.

PLEASE NOTE: You may be ordered to attend mediation. Please come to the case management conference prepared to pay your portion of the mediation fee.

The following matters will be discussed at the case management conference, and an order may be entered at that time, or at a subsequent hearing, even if a motion for interim relief has not been filed:

1. Interim arrangements for the children, including residence, parent/child contact, health insurance and child support; interim responsibility for payment of periodic debts; and interim spousal support (if applicable). You must file form FM-050, Child Support Affidavit.
2. Issues in dispute;
3. Deadlines for moving the case to resolution, exchange of information (discovery), and mediation;
4. Payment of fees, including any court mediation fee and attorney fees;
5. Date and time of the next court event. If one party is defaulted or if the case involves the establishment or enforcement of a child support obligation, a brief hearing may take place on the day of the case management conference;
6. Other matters pertinent to the case including, but not limited to, attendance at a parent education program; genetic testing; a job search; the appointment of a guardian ad litem; and/or a psychological evaluation.

The Magistrate will enter a Case Management Order following the case management conference that will determine the course of the proceedings and may enter other orders, such as an interim order, or an order enforcing a child support obligation.

WARNING TO PARTIES: If you are the responding party and wish to object to the complaint or motion, a response must be filed within the time limits established by statute or court rule. Do not wait until the time of the case management conference to state your objections.

You have the right to appear and be heard at all court events (trial, hearing, conference, mediation). If you fail to appear at any or all court events without good cause, action may be taken on your case even though you are not there. This means that the Court may, in your absence, enter an interim/temporary order OR hold a final hearing and enter a final default order or judgment regarding any or all of the issues in your case, including but not limited to paternity or parentage, parental rights and responsibilities for children (custody, residence, visitation, etc.), child support, name change, spousal support/alimony, attorney fees, and distribution of marital and non-marital property (debt, real estate, vehicles, pension and retirement accounts, etc.). The Court also may dismiss any pleading that you have filed if you do not show up.
